From The Rector

The Ride of Your Life!

In the winter of 1985, at the corner of Academy and Astrozon Blvds in Colorado Springs, I recognized a profound truth. Sitting in my car at stoplight with a Dominos Pizza sign suctioned to the top of my car, in a part of town where I was unlikely to run into any clients from my struggling commercial real estate career, I admitted to God (if he was really there, I thought to myself) that I could not journey through this life without him at my side. I know. You would expect that a proclamation such as that would be made at the end of a powerful church service with music playing and people praying. But for me it was in the midst of frustration and anger in a blue Honda Civic delivering pizza in order to buy peanut butter and pay rent. And at that moment, I felt the touch of God so profoundly that everything in my life changed. Well, at least everything was put on the path to change. When the stoplight turned green the road that I was driving on was still the same, but my life path had altered dramatically.

In the years to come from that day, God led me on a path that brought me to a type of joy and peace that had never existed in my life. Working with youth, serving in church, leading mission trips, learning guitar for worship, serving on vestry, volunteering at a soup kitchen, taking teenagers to a national leadership conference, playing in the bell choir... All things that I had never imagined that I would do or love so much.

As my journey with God moved into the 1990s, a song by Stephen Curtis Chapman captured my imagination and became, in many ways, how I was coming to know my life with Christ. Exciting, joyful, filled with peace, even as I built my business career and lived my life. God taught me through this song about seeing life as something bigger than my making. How, if we choose a solitary path, we wake up every morning chasing our own thoughts running in circles for the sake of our own goals.

The song revealed that the Bible, when opened and read, tells us our personal story.

"I opened up the Bible and I read about me! Said I'd been a prisoner and God's grace had

Vestry Meeting Summary

The summary for the monthly Vestry meeting can be found on our website or posted on the bulletin board outside the office. Go to www.CORSCG.ORG monthly for a detailed summary of the topics, discussion, and decisions which transpired during the last Vestry meeting.

From the Senior Warden

Most of us do not like change. Even in the best of circumstances, it almost always involves some element of hassle, some departure from routines that have become accustomed and comfortable, some venturing into the unknown. In the worst of circumstances, change can cause anxiety, fear, even panic.

The changes now facing The Church of the Redeemer come in the best of circumstances. Father Scott has handled the communication of his decision to us with great love and respect for our parish and congregation. He has done everything possible to ensure that our transition is a smooth one. While it is deeply sorrowful to see a good friend leave, I am not aware of any anger or bitterness over his decision, and this is all due to the gentle and loving way in which Father Scott has dealt with Redeemer while embracing the change in where God is calling him.

We, in turn, owe it to Father Scott to do all that we can to ensure that we say farewell to him and Jane with the same love and respect they have shown to us.

There will be a good-bye party for them on May 6, following the 10:30 service, in Purser Hall.

The following Sunday, May 13, will be Father Scott's last here at Redeemer.

I ask everyone who can come on either of these Sundays, please be there.

The Bible instructs us that God is all about change. "Behold, I am making all things new," He tells us in the Book of Isaiah and in the Revelation to John. The Sunday after Father Scott preaches his last sermon here - May 20 - is very appropriately the Sunday of Pentecost, and also Youth Sunday. Both embody the beginning of the Church.

God is making something new at Redeemer. Let's embrace that change together, with the constant and unchanging quality of this Church - our love for God and for each other.

Christian Ed

Spring took a little while to get here, but I think it has finally sprung, and hopefully for good this time. May will be a busy month. It's funny, some of us on staff say things like, "Christmas is over, things will slow down, or once we get through Easter we can take a breath." Nope, Jesus has other plans! He keeps us on our toes and has wonderful plans for Redeemer. There is always a lot to do and new things to achieve to help us get better at being the hands and feet of the church. HE is never finished with us and for that I am forever grateful.

Sunday school classes for the youth will end on May 20. Thank you so much to all the teachers that devote their time and talent to the youth of Redeemer. I say this every year, but without each of you, there would be no Christian Education. We truly cannot thank you all enough for sharing your love and faith with our children: Jane Anderson, Katie and Larry Broderick, Meg Coffey, Judy Derrick, Margie Hankinson, Andrea Helm, Sherri Houston, Ann Meade, June Moore, Courtney Papadopoulos, Debbie Price, Paige Russo, Kathy Shugart.

We will celebrate our seniors and youth on May 20 at both services.

We have three graduating seniors:

Thomas Jennings
Kaitlyn Massengill
Elliott Webb

They have all been active in E.Y.C. and Outreach over the years. We wish you many blessings as this next chapter in your lives begin. We will miss seeing your faces and all the good times we've shared in youth group. But, you can't get rid of us, we are all family and will see you at church. In a few years I will be asking you to teach Sunday school!

Much love and God's Peace,
Lori Hawkins

set me free. And somewhere between the pages it hit me like a lightning bolt. I saw a big frontier in front of me and I heard someone say, 'Let's Go!'"

The second verse of this song of my life takes revelation and turns it into invitation. It invites us to the ride of our lives. It tells us that our faith should not be somber and downtrodden. It calls us to the excitement of a life with God through his Son in a community of believer within a world that needs to hear about him. It tells us that there are new horizons beyond this world that are there for us to discover and explore, explaining that that is what we were created for.

"So come on, get ready for the ride of your life! Gonna leave long-faced religion in a cloud of dust behind. And discover all the new horizons just waiting to be explored. This is what we were created for!"

And that has been my story. Sometimes scary. Sometimes amazing. Always joyful! Come on get ready for the ride or your life! That is what we were created for. And that is what God invites us all to.

The final verse brings it home. It includes the words, "This is the greatest journey that the human heart will ever see. The love of God will take us far beyond our wildest dreams." That is the journey and the life that God promises us.

As Jane and I get ready to continue on the ride that God has put us on that will take us to a new place within his kingdom, there are not words to express how we have been blessed by our time at Redeemer. The ride of Jane's and my life has intersected with the ride of your lives, and the life of The Church of the Redeemer, and as Genesis says, "and God saw that it was good", just as he intended it to be.

What great joy lies ahead for all of us. Embracing God's call. Feeling his love. Engaging God's mission. We may not know exactly what awaits over the horizon, but we are

THE SPIRITUAL LIFE OF THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Summary of spiritual inventory findings of RenewalWorks: A Ministry of Forward Movement

200 RENEWALWORKS CONGREGATIONS
12,000 EPISCOPALIANS

47% OF THESE CHURCHES HAVE 101-250 PARISHIONERS
54% OF RESPONDENTS HAVE ATTENDED THEIR CHURCH 10+ YEARS

DATA FROM 2013-2017

THREE PRIMARY CHURCH ARCHETYPES

- Troubled: Restless and hungry for greater spiritual growth.
- Extroverted: Committed to service, mission, and outreach; limited correlation between service and spiritual beliefs.
- Complacent: Low expectations of transformation, and resistance to change and challenge.

WHAT WE HEAR BY THE NUMBERS

- 60% want the church to help them develop a relationship with God in Christ.
- 57% percent want to be challenged to grow and take next steps spiritually.
- Only 14% of the 12,000 respondents say they reflect on scripture daily.
- Only 42% are extremely satisfied or very satisfied with the way their church helps them develop a relationship with Jesus Christ.
- Only 38% felt they were extremely or very satisfied with how the church challenged them to grow and take next steps.
- 42% have never met with members of their church clergy individually, and 48% have never talked with a spiritual mentor.

WHERE ARE WE SPIRITUALLY? THE FOUR STAGES OF SPIRITUAL GROWTH

EXPLORING →

Affirmed belief in God, though not sure what faith claims they would make about Christ. Generally, faith is not significant in their day-to-day life.

18%

GROWING →

They are committed to the Christian faith but still have many questions and have not developed a personal relationship with God in Christ.

55%

DEEPENING →

Transition to value a personal relationship with God over their church membership. They feel close to Christ and depend on him daily for guidance.

23%

CENTERED

A personal relationship with God in Christ is the most important relationship in their lives, but that doesn't mean their spiritual journey is over.

4%

72%

Consider themselves to be at an early, less mature stage of spiritual growth. Parishioners that fall into the first two stages are highly dependent on the church—and specifically the clergy—to help teach, guide and mentor.

FOUR CATALYSTS FOR SPIRITUAL GROWTH

1. Engagement with scripture
2. Transforming power of the Eucharist
3. A deeper prayer life
4. The heart of the leader

invited to go there with excitement, because God is already there waiting to show us our part for that time.

The chorus between each verse from Stephen Curtis Chapman's song The Great Adventure goes like this...

"Saddle up you horses!
We've got a trail to blaze.
Through the wild blue yonder,
Of God's amazing Grace.
Let's follow our leader,
Into the Glorious unknown.
This is the life like no other.
This is the great adventure!"

Update on our Missionary in the Ukraine

I arrived here finally last Friday night with no problem crossing the border from Slovakia into Ukraine. I am living in a Ukrainian neighborhood and have located a market and with great difficulty am getting supplies I need because I don't speak the language. Uzhgorod is a small city where I can walk to most places that I need to go. I got out on the streets to explore the old part of the city with castles and Orthodox churches. One sees families and couples walking the streets. Something quite different from the states. I went with a member of the team to one of the biggest Roma camps. They live in a district where the Jews lived before WWII and after they fled the Romas moved in. I met with several Roma community leaders and walked the streets. The only place I have worked and saw such terrible conditions that human beings live was Calcutta. I visited 4 Roma families went into their houses and with the help of an interpreter introduced myself. Some of the houses have no windows some with only a tin roof and no walls and the whole district has no running water. While out in the village I was asked by many to come into their house and pray with them. The roads in and around the area are hardly passable for a car and when it rains they flood. My heart aches for them and I knew that this is the place I need to be to spread Christ's love. I met a Roma pastor and was invited to his church Sunday afternoon for a service. Today I am going out again to meet with another ministry that is working with the Romas. Sickness and poverty is all around especially TB. I prayed with a woman who has TB the other day. Each day is filled with opportunities to spread God's love. There is so much to tell about the new culture and environment.

Thanks for all you do for me to continue to spread the Gospel and Christ's love.

Brother in Christ,
Gary Powell

Celebrating our Rector 12:00 pm, May 6

Please plan to join together as a congregation as we gather to wish Fr. Scott and Jane well as they answer God's call to St. Peter's Cathedral in the Diocese of Montana. While they will be truly missed, God invites us to celebrate their ministry among us, to embrace with them the new ministry to which they are being called, and to the excitement of what God is planning for The Church of the Redeemer in the future. We are all one Body in Christ, serving together in one mission, even when separated geographically.

We will have a farewell party for Scott and Jane at Redeemer on May 6th after the 10:30am service in Purser Hall. The following Sunday, May 13th, will be Fr. Scott's last Sunday at Redeemer. On that day we hope you will be in church as our worship will include The Liturgy of Leave Taking, as we send Scott and Jane out from Redeemer with our blessings to serve God in another part of God's creation.

God is good in all things! Let us rejoice and be glad in it!

BETH MOORE BINGE-A-THON

(a video series based on the life and journeys of Paul, an apostle of Christ.)

OK, it's almost time for the Beth Moore Binge-A-Thon. Here are the dates (all on Saturdays): May 5 & 19 and June 2, 2018. Mark your calendars, please!!

We're calling it a Binge-A-Thon because we could easily be here three to four hours each Saturday, starting at 9am. Thus, we need to come prepared with food and drink and joy and anticipation. Also, you will want to bring pad and pen to take notes. We will meet in the Youth Room in the Education Bldg. The plan is to watch 3 sessions each week and have discussion after each video because they are so powerful.

So bring your refreshments for yourself and some to share if you desire. I would appreciate your letting me know if you're going to participate just so we can have an idea of how much seating space to prepare for. It's going to be fun! I'm looking forward to seeing all of you. Everyone is invited--even you men!!

To RSVP or if you have any questions, contact Betty Boesch, or Margie Hankinson.

PRAYERS FOR THE PEOPLE

Do you have someone on "Prayers of the People" list that is not a member of our church?

Would you like for this person to know that Redeemer is praying for them each week?

If so, please provide me with the address of person and I will send them a hand written note, from The Church of the Redeemer, letting them know they are in our thoughts and prayers.

ALTAR FLOWER DEDICATIONS

Flowers on the altar are more than just an adornment for the front of our sanctuary. It is an historical tradition to show our thanks and humility to the Lord. It is a symbol of recognition of His Glory. Dedicating the offering in the name of someone is a great honor. Our 2018 Altar dedication book is on the communication table for special dedications to be made. Special requests for flower type, color or arrangement style can be noted. Dedications are only $35, but the awe of honoring his Glory cannot be measured.
