People: Amen.

First Lesson: Daniel 7:1-3,15-18

In the first year of King Belshazzar of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions of his head as he lay in bed. Then he wrote down the dream: I, Daniel, saw in my vision by night the four winds of heaven stirring up the great sea, and four great beasts came up out of the sea, different from one another. As for me, Daniel, my spirit was troubled within me, and the visions of my head terrified me. I approached one of the attendants to ask him the truth concerning all this. So he said that he would disclose to me the interpretation of the matter: "As for these four great beasts, four kings shall arise out of the earth. But the holy ones of the Most High shall receive the kingdom and possess the kingdom for ever—for ever and ever."

Lector: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

The Psalm:

Psalm 149

Hallelujah!

Sing to the LORD a new song; * sing his praise in the congregation of the faithful.

Let Israel rejoice in his Maker; *
let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.

Let them praise his Name in the dance; *
let them sing praise to him with timbrel and harp.

For the LORD takes pleasure in his people *
and adorns the poor with victory.

Let the faithful rejoice in triumph; *
let them be joyful on their beds.

Let the praises of God be in their throat *
and a two-edged sword in their hand;

To wreak vengeance on the nations *
and punishment on the peoples;

To bind their kings in chains *
and their nobles with links of iron;

To inflict on them the judgment decreed; *
this is glory for all his faithful people.
Hallelujah!

Second Lesson:

Ephesians 1:11-23

In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance toward redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory. I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

Lector: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel

Luke 6:20-31

Celebrant: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ According to Luke.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus looked up at his disciples and said: "Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God. "Blessed are you who are hungry now, for you will be filled. "Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh. "Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, revile you, and defame you on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven; for that is what their ancestors did to the prophets." "But woe to you who are rich, for you have received your consolation. "Woe to you who are full now, for you will be hungry. "Woe to you who are laughing now, for you will mourn and weep. "Woe to you when all speak well of you, for that is what their ancestors did to the false prophets. "But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. Do to others as you would have them do to you.

Celebrant: The Gospel of the Lord

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

I Sing A Song

Please stand

The Great Thanksgiving: Eucharistic Prayer A..... BCP 361

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Celebrant: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

Proper Preface

Celebrant: Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus..... S-129

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

The people stand or kneel.

Celebrant: Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Celebrant: Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

People: Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Celebrant: We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever

All: AMEN.

Celebrant: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to pray,

The Lord's Prayer..... BCP 364

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Celebrant: Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People: Therefore let us keep the feast.

THE CHURCH OF THE REDEEMER

Vestry Nominations – Class of 2022

The Vestry of The Church of the Redeemer is pleased to nominate the following candidates for election to the Vestry as members of the class of 2022. Those nominated by the Vestry to serve your church for the next three years are: Greg Brown, Annette Burdette, Daniel McCullough and Robin Mill.

Vestry election will be held, Sunday November 17, 2019.

A brief biographical on each candidate is provided for your reference.

Greg Brown

My name is Greg Brown. I was born and raised in Baltimore, Maryland. My wife, Sandy, and I have 3 children and 6 grandchildren. We have been members of the Episcopal Church all of our lives. From age 10 to 17, I sang in the Old St. Paul's Episcopal Church Boys Choir – a wonderful experience that I treasure to this day. Throughout my college years, I sang in glee clubs, as well as a church choir. I received my undergraduate and graduate degrees in Electrical Engineering from Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore, Maryland.

After college, I worked for Bethlehem Steel Corporation for 10 years as an electrical engineer. A job offer from what is now Fluor Corporation brought our family to Greenville, South Carolina. I worked for Fluor for over 33 years and have been retired for about 5 years. During my years at Fluor, I worked on engineering/construction projects in many different states, and have traveled abroad to Russia, China, Turkey, and Macedonia.

I became involved with The Church of the Redeemer when Sandy's mother, Evelyn Bond, was a member of the church choir. Through Evelyn, we met many wonderful church members and shared in various church activities. I have been singing in the Redeemer choir for the last 11 years. I have been a Vestry member from Feb 2015 to Jan 2018. While on the Vestry, my commission was Pastoral Care. During my time on the Vestry, I have come to know more of our parish family members. Within the Pastoral Care commission, I have had the opportunity to become involved with the following: Eucharistic Visitors Ministry, Prayer List Ministry, Card Ministry, Phone Call Ministry, Handy Man Ministry, Food/Meals Ministry and Transportation Ministry.

Because of my prior wonderful experience on the Vestry, I believe that the Lord wants me to continue my involvement with the church. Being a member of the Vestry will lead me in the direction that I believe the Lord want me to go.

Annette Burdette

I have been a member of The Church of the Redeemer since 1981. During all this time I have been active in the church. I have been retired from teaching for the past 7 years. Since then I have been Vestry secretary. I have been impressed with how the Vestry prayerfully and thoughtfully makes decisions. The members of the Vestry are respectful of others viewpoints. I would feel honored to be a part of this group.

Daniel McCullough

Many of you have met me at some point over The Peace or coffee in the transept, but for those that haven't, I have been an avid member of The Church of the Redeemer since my birth. My family and I still sit in the same second row pew where we would sit with my grandfather who was hard of hearing. Through my upbringing in the Church, I was a regular member of the EYC youth group from Sunday night meetings to skiing in the mountains at the Jernigan Mountain House or lake trips at Ken Wood's Lake House.

Upon starting Middle School at St. Joseph Catholic School, I began serving as an acolyte at the 8:30am service and during High School I was the head caretaker of the garth. I have always tried to volunteer as much of my time to the church including helping with the church yard sale, unloading pumpkins for the annual pumpkin patch, bringing in the Chrismon Tree or anything needed of me, no matter the size of project.

Through the church, I was able to reach out to other charities including building the children's playground at Pleasant Valley Connection for my Eagle Scout Project. Upon beginning college at The Citadel, my attendance at The Church of the Redeemer was reduced to my homecomings, but I continued to practice my faith at The Church of the Holy Cross on Sullivan's Island. I graduated in 2015 and now work for a Civil Engineering Firm as a Project Engineer. I look forward to continuing my service to Christ and The Church of the Redeemer.

Robin Mill

My name is Robin Mill. I was born and raised in Miami, Florida. I graduated from Florida State University with a Bachelors degree in Foreign Language Education. I moved to Greenville after meeting my husband, David. We were married in 1979 and are celebrating our 40th wedding anniversary. We are the blessed parents of three wonderful children, three awesome grandchildren, with another due in January. Having been raised Jewish, after attending The Church of the Redeemer for the first twenty years of our marriage, I was baptized and confirmed here in 1999.

I have taught Spanish at J L Mann for four years and Mauldin High for nine years. I then earned my Master of Arts in School Administration from Furman University in 2002. I then spent 15 years at Berea Middle School, where I served as Assistant Principal for five years and ten years as Principal. I retired in 2018, to help care for two of my grandchildren.

I have served The Church of the Redeemer as a Lector I, Lector II, Vestry Member, Sunday School Teacher, Vacation Bible School Director, Usher, Flower Guild, and most recently as the Chair of the Search Committee. I would be honored to be able to serve as a Vestry Member again.

Join us for Adult Sunday School on Sundays in November.

Our program will continue this Sunday with Annette Burdette sharing a bit of her life and faith journey, a fascinating and moving story. Please join us at 10:45 in the Adult Sunday School classroom, following the coffee hour after the service.

Coming up in this class (after Annette) will be a review and discussion of the feature-length film, “Paul, Apostle of Christ.” The movie will be broken into three segments presented on three consecutive Sundays, and will be used as a springboard for discussion about the life and significance of Paul, the early church, and what it was like to be a Christian in that time.

We also would like to invite members of Redeemer to share their stories with God in this class. If you would be willing to do this, please let Wallace Lightsey, Betty Boesch, Brendan Payne or Rick or Margie Hankinson know.
