On Graduation, Eaglets, and The Word of God

Congratulations to all who have graduated from school; your Redeemer family looks forward to watching your futures embrace you and enrich your lives.

Congratulations to those who had a sudden transition to video coursework, home schooling, working at home, and diving into new technologies. For all of us, in some way, it has been a challenging time. The future unfolds in an unknown way. Fortunately, we are not alone in this century in experiencing big life transitions. Those who have gone before us might guide us on our way. After Moses dies, God tells Joshua to go into the land that God promised to the Israelites. God tells Joshua the boundaries of the land, and it is vast; to meditate on the law and to act in accordance with it. Then the Lord says:

"I hereby command you:
'Be strong and courageous;
do not be frightened or dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go.'" (1 Joshua 1.9)

It can be hard to imagine that an ancient people's life can affect our own, but in God's inspired and living word, it does. Joshua does not know what is ahead, but God will be with him. Knowing or unknowingly, Joshua has prepared for this upcoming time.

Graduates, the same is true for you: none of us knows exactly what lies ahead, but you have been preparing for this future for many years; you are ready. God is with you. The land ahead of you is vast! You have more options than many of us can imagine. We live in a world in which knowledge itself expands exponentially in increasingly shorter time spans. You have and will continue to have knowledge and opportunities unknown to anyone born before you. The whole world - and beyond - is your "land." To further prepare and not be overwhelmed, meditate on God's word and know God is with you.

The next advice is a command from God: "be strong and courageous; do not be frightened or dismayed." You are already strong, and have an abundance of courage in challenging yourselves with further education, a new job, or whatever path you have chosen. Your graduation certainly has been like no others, and you made it through. Well done, friends; well done. God's promise remains: "the Lord your God is with you wherever you go."

God will be with you in many ways, and I suspect that most of those ways will happen beyond the walls of a church building. Your parish family prays for you now and will continue to do so; we are with you in spirit. Your life experiences, your faithfulness, studies, and inquiry have given you a strong foundation. I hope that you come to realize that you have received "a whole lot of God" that has come in many forms, including those "without a whole lot of church." You are the church in serving in church, in soup kitchens, hauling pumpkins, and even in skiing - helping one another and spending time (mostly) in harmony. Your lives are inextricably bound up with God in the best of ways.

The history of the Israelites and God's word inform us. So, too, does God's creation. Your parents/caregivers might not know as much as they once did? Consider that you might have been brought up in a way similar to an eaglet. Eagle parents prepare a nest for their young, lining the inside with soft things like feathers and moss. As the eaglets grow, eagle parents coach their little ones along, making essential things a little harder to reach, and later even stirring up the nest, making it less and less comfortable. The eagles have not forgotten how to bring food home or to keep a cozy nest. The parents are encouraging their offspring to find sustenance and comfort in new places, with the world as their home. What the eaglets do not see is that their eagle parents have also cleared the fly space for their growing offspring; guarding, clearing, guiding, ... and backing off. Life transitions are hard for everyone. The eaglets grow, learn, hop, fly, and eventually, soar. There is nothing quite like the sight of a soaring eagle.

Graduates, congratulations! Soar in your new-found adulthood. Be guided in the ways and creation of God. Remember:

"Be strong and courageous;
do not be frightened or dismayed,
for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go."

God's peace
and blessings,

In Christ,

Here is a summary of the guidelines for returning to worship at Redeemer. Please note: Redeemer can hold no in-person meetings or worship until our proposal for how we will maintain social distancing, etc. is approved by the Bishop. We are submitting that proposal now. Even then, SC COVID-19 cases must be decreasing for the time frames listed in the diocesan guideline documents.

A summary of guidelines for worship during this pandemic

Before I come to worship ...

PHASE 1 Guidelines effective May 15, 2020

As a diocese, as we prepare to gather in-person for worship, the Bishop's taskforce is watching several statistical trends:

Health: 14-day downward trend in percentage of people in SC testing positive for COVID-19. Our start date was May 6, 2020.

Bishop's advanced approval of all in-person worship plans.

- Online worship will continue
- Virtual meetings and gatherings will continue
- For any in-person worship to occur, all individuals must sign a covenant agreeing to the following guidelines:
  - 3- 10 people present
  - All present must wear a face mask
  - 6-foot social distancing (except for members of the same household); pews have been marked; ushers will help seat us
  - Any movement must maintain social distancing
  - Hymns/music will be played, but we are not singing at this time
- For now we are continuing with Morning Prayer

Parishioners who attend worship at this time commit themselves to this Safety Covenant, and will bring a signed copy to church prior to a service:

- If I have any symptoms associated with COVID-19, I will not attend in-person worship.
- If I develop symptoms or am diagnosed after a liturgy, I will report it immediately to the priest.
- I will not shake hands or hug anyone, and will do my best to maintain distance of 6 feet with anyone outside my family group.
- I will wash or sanitize my hands immediately before coming to worship.
- I will wear a mask at all times while with the worshipping community, until no longer recommended.

Blank covenants are available at the door for your convenience.

Any initial in-person worship services will be small and will not take place until at least June 14th. We will let you know as soon as dates are known. The entire document can be found on the website:

<https://www.edusc.org/blog/covid/>

In Christ, Catherine+

PHASE 2 Guidelines

Health: 28-day trend data

- Bishop's advanced approval of worship expansion
- Online worship will continue
- Small group gatherings permitted with physical distancing and masks
- Up to 25 people at worship services
- PHASE 1 guidelines continue, including face masks for all present

Plus:

- Soloist or small group of singers with expanded physical distancing between them
- Possible outside worship with all social distancing guidelines in place
- Ongoing assessment of pandemic's impact on parishioners, if any; guidelines adjusted as necessary.
- Holy Eucharist is a possibility, with communion in one kind (bread only).

PHASES 3 through 5

Health: lengthened periods of trend data

- More people allowed to be in worship
- (Online worship will continue)

More detailed information is readily available:

- on Redeemer's website: www.corgsc.org,
- on the diocesan website: www.edusc.org,
- or upon request from Catherine+ or any vestry member.

* Our fundamental goal is to preserve the health and safety of all who enter our building. Persons with health vulnerabilities should not attend in-person worship. No currently infected parishioners with or without symptoms may attend any services."

Data compiled by Robin Mill and Catherine Tatem, from the "Guidelines for Reopening in-person worship" of May 15, 2020 from The Episcopal Diocese of Upper South Carolina.

THE CHURCH OF THE REDEEMER

COVENANTS For Before I come to worship.

Parishioners who attend worship at this time commit themselves to this Safety Covenant, and will bring a signed copy to church prior to a service:

- ☐ If I have any symptoms associated with COVID-19, I will not attend in-person worship.
  - ☐ If I develop symptoms or am diagnosed after a liturgy, I will report it immediately to the priest.
  - ☐ I will not shake hands or hug anyone, and will do my best to maintain distance of 6 feet with anyone outside my family group.
  - ☐ I will wash or sanitize my hands immediately before coming to worship.
  - ☐ I will wear a mask at all times while with the worshipping community.
- Our fundamental goal is to preserve the health and safety of all who enter our building.
  - Persons with health vulnerabilities should not attend in-person worship.
  - No currently infected parishioners with or without symptoms may attend any services.

By signing this document I agree to comply with all of the statements listed above.

Garth Work

Below is a list of items that could be worked on in the Garth if you are wanting to get out of the house and do some yard work. Daniel McCullough will be working on these over time, but if anyone would like to help out please just give him a call: 982-4135 or email: Daniel@bluewatercivil.com.

- Mow the lawn as needed
- Rake out any leaves that have fallen in the grass
- Pull any overgrowth growing on the building
- Cut back any plants growing against the building
- Clean out the stair well to the transept as needed
- Pull weeds out of mulch beds
- Prune dead leaves from bushes
- Spray weeds growing in walkways and edging
- Trim down monkey grass that has grown too tall
- Blow off brick walkway
- Rake leaves out of mulch beds, particularly to the left as you walk in the gate
- Edge brick walkway and bench areas
- Prune bushes and any tall branches, trim azalea bush after it blossoms
- Clean the bird bath
- Clean overgrowth around grave stones
- Clean out shed of junk and trash
- Pick up fallen sticks
- Spread new mulch in beds

Christian Education

Happy June everyone!

I hope this finds you all well and enjoying some warmer and dry weather. I want to take a moment to talk about and honor the seniors.

Graduating from high school this year is Daniel Derrick, Will Derrick, George Poleski, and Andrew Reardon.

Congratulations to all of you as you end this chapter of your education and begin something new. I have known most of you since you were little. My first memory of George is as a 7 or 8-year-old swinging around a tree just outside the narthex in his navy blazer, tie, khakis, and sunglasses. He looked like a miniature FBI agent!

I remember VBS days with Daniel and Will and having to keep an eye on the sneaky one...I wonder which twin?

Andrew, who I think every time I see him has grown another foot and helped us plant pinwheels on the front lawn.

As you move on, I know some of you have plans that will take you away to college and to different towns. Some of you will stay closer to home, attend school locally, begin working, or both! It has been a privilege for me to watch you grow into the young men that you are today. Over the years there have been countless hours of flipping pancakes, cleaning up after serving at the soup kitchen, yard sale fundraisers, building handicap ramps, setting out luminaries, unloading pumpkins, playing sardines in the dark, stuffing eggs, and the list could go on and on. Anything I ever asked, you have always been up to the task!

You all are part of what makes Redeemer the incredible and special place that it is. The torch is now being passed on to the younger youth and I know they will lead by your great example.

If I could give you any advice what would it be? To stand strong for what you believe in, but always be ready to listen. Your faith is a lifelong journey and there will be times in your life where your faith might take a back seat but know that Jesus is always right up front with you. Hold your family close and cherish them every day. Treasure those friends that you can always count on no matter what. Know that Redeemer will always be your home and that the people in it love you beyond measure.

Other thanks....

Thank you to all the Christian Education teachers that year after year dedicate themselves to sharing the Good News with the youth of the church. Many thanks... Katie and Larry Broderick, Joe Butchko, Meg Coffey, Judy Derrick, Kathryn and Laurie Ethridge, Sarah Fitzgerald, Ann Meade, Robin Mill, and Kathy Shugart.

Thank you to those that serve our youngest members in the nursery: Leslie Entwistle, Bennett Helm, Morgan Helm, and Kaitlyn Massengill.

Thank you to all the youth and their parents! I know life is looking a little different right now, but I look forward to figuring out what our future looks like and walking beside you as we serve our Mighty God, Maker of Heaven and Earth.

God's Peace,

Lori

Redeemer Graduates

Dear Church of the Redeemer,

As we can't meet in person, the graduating seniors were asked to write their speech.

My name is George Poeski. So, most of y'all have known me since I wore bow ties to church every Sunday, and watched me grow up in the church. But for those who haven't I'll give a little background. My family followed Father Bob from Christ Church to Redeemer. Shortly after, I started Sunday school and served as an acolyte, and once I reached high school, EYC. I've participated in many EYC events such as working at the soup kitchen, volunteering at the duck derby, and of course the yearly ski trip.

I went on our church's mission trip to Casa de Hogar when I was 8 by starting my own pet sitting and dog walking business. I've also been involved in Boy Scouts, eventually earning the rank of Eagle Scout. All of these experiences taught me life-changing lessons at a young age.

During high school I started working at Chick-fil-a and started a side IT business helping anyone with basic technology issues. I am graduating from NEXT high school where I held many positions including assistant SisAdmin (system administrator), YIG delegate (Youth in government), and Head of the school media team.

With my interest in technology I've chosen to go to The Citadel to pursue a major in Cybersecurity with a minor in data mining. I plan on serving in the Air Force and hopefully the Air Forces Cyber Command. I know this won't be an easy task, but with God all things are possible and I have a great support team through this church.

Our church family has really shaped me into the person I am today, and I want to thank you for that. I also want to thank all those who donated to my Eagle Scout project and those who wrote letters of recommendation to the Eagle Board of Review; to the parent chaperones for EYC events; and especially for the love and support of the entire congregation.

As I move on to my college career and throughout my adult life I plan on strengthening my relationship with God and remaining steadfast in my faith. As I wrap up this speech I would like to leave you with this verse from Proverbs 3 verses 5-6

"Trust in the LORD with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways submit to him, and he will make your paths straight."

Thank You so much for letting me be a part of this wonderful church family. You will be in my heart and in my prayers, always.

George Poleski

CELEBRATE
CLASS of 2020

Hi, my name is Daniel Derrick and I am graduating from Woodmont High School this year. I have attended The Church of the Redeemer my whole life. I was baptized here, attended Sunday School, and served as an acolyte for five years.

Every other Sunday, I attended EYC. Whether playing sardines in the dark, bowling, or playing charades, being part of Redeemer's youth group was never really about the games. It was about coming closer to your friends and through that becoming closer to God. The people I've known and the experiences I've had at The Church of the Redeemer have created a bond that can never be broken, and even though I'm graduating from high school and youth group, the memories and friendships I've garnered here will never be forgotten. ALL of you have shaped me into who I am today and I have been truly blessed to be a part of this amazing church.

I'm still undecided as to my college major; so I will most likely attend basic classes at Greenville Tech until I figure it out. Also, I've been a soccer referee for five years and plan to take advanced training this summer that will allow me to referee adult and high school games. I'd like to take refereeing as far as I can.

One of my favorite scriptures is

"If you don't stand firm in your faith, you won't stand at all" - Isaiah 7:9.

I plan to stand tall and firm in my faith as I take on the world.

Thank you and God bless!

Daniel Derrick

Hello my name is Will Derrick and I am graduating from Brashier Middle College and have gone to The Church of the Redeemer since I was born. I would like to start off by thanking all of the people that have helped me to get to where I am in life.

My parents Judy and Scott Derrick for taking me to church and for helping me throughout my life. I would also like to thank Lori Hawkins for leading all of the Sunday school classes and the EYC youth group. The next person that I would like to thank is Joe Buthcko. He helped me build my senior project and he has been a good friend and mentor for me. I would like to thank Ken and Celia for teaching me how to ski. The ski trips will always be one of my fondest moments and I will always remember them.

The next thing that I would like to talk about is my future. I will be going to Greenville Tech for a year or two just to get all the base classes done and figure out what I am going to do. I have narrowed down my choices to Electrical Engineering or Radiology, There are pros and cons to both decisions and I hope I figure it out soon. After I get all of the base classes out of the way and figure out what I am going to do I plan to transfer to a bigger school. The school which I will have always wanted to go to is Clemson. I have been an adamant Clemson fan since I was a kid and if I go there it will be a dream come true. And finally, I would like to thank everyone at the church because they have all meant so much to me.

Will Derrick

Graduates Continued

Hi! My name is Andrew Reardon and I am graduating from Spartanburg High School. After high school I will be attending Clemson University. I plan on majoring in Engineering. Church has helped me in growing up with a good moral code and structure. I feel it will help me in college as well.

Andrew Reardon

My name is Elizabeth Bannio. I am the daughter of Sue & Mike Bannio and I am graduating from South College with my Decorate in Physical Therapy. I just love The Church of the Redeemer!

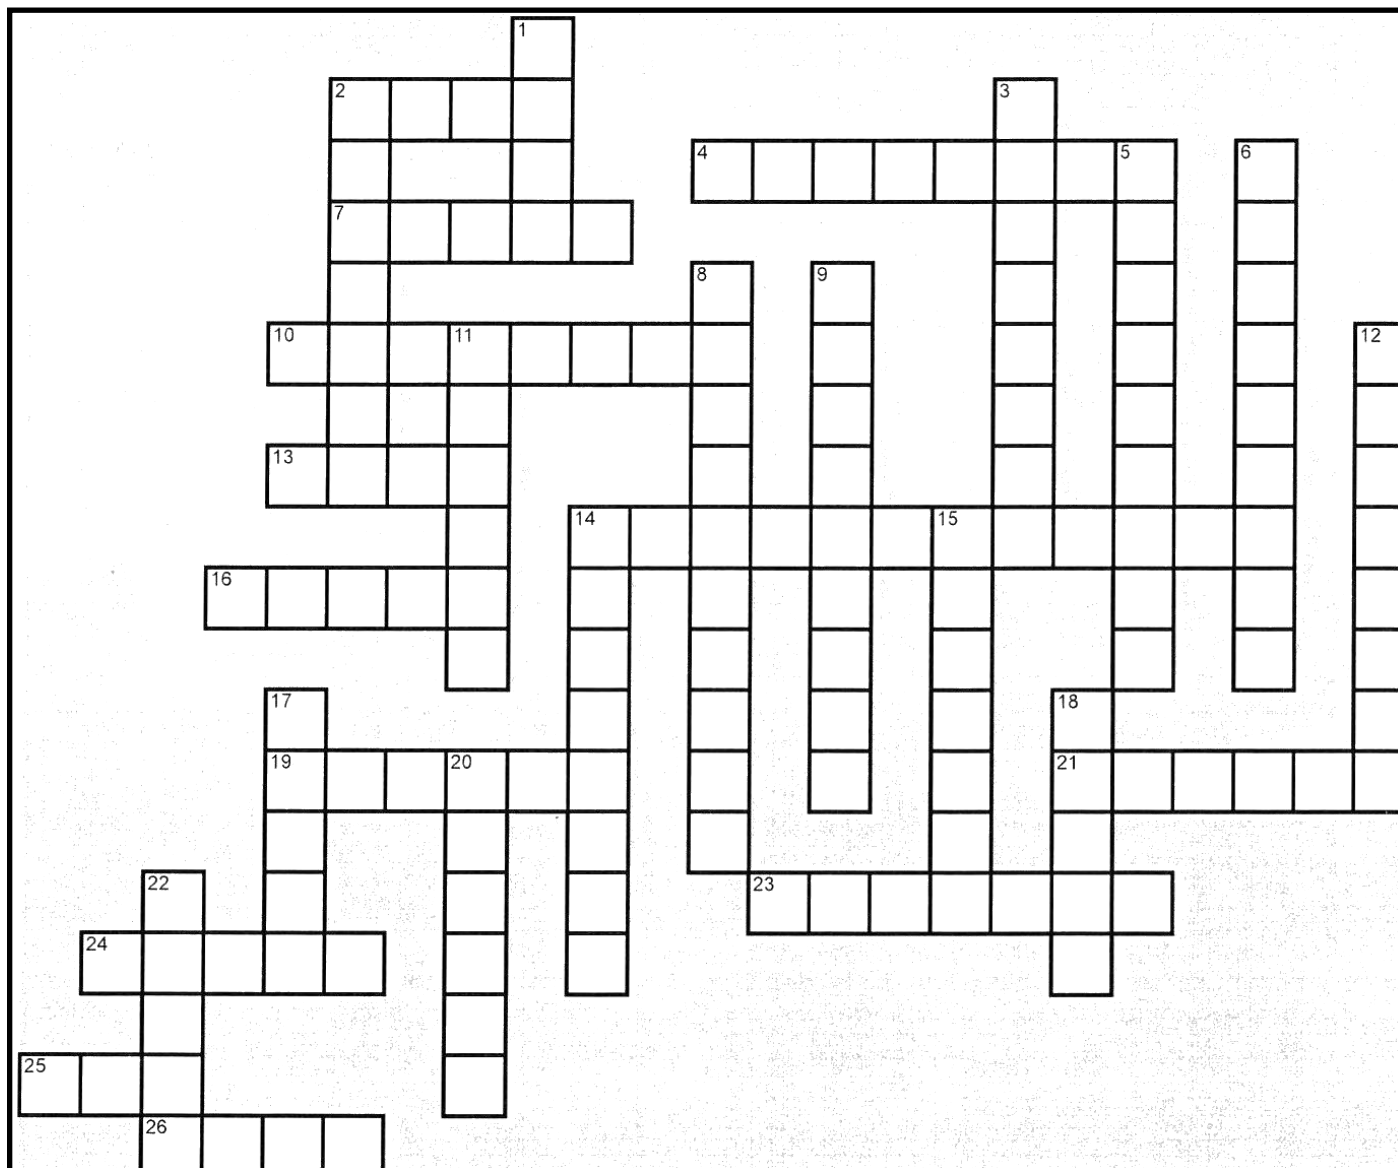

I have been attending South College in Knoxville, Tennessee for the past two years in an on-line program for Doctors of Physical Therapy.

I am excited to be working in Simpsonville at Elite Therapies for my internship. My future plans are to work as a Physical Therapist and help people recovering from injuries. I hope to work with some athletes along the way and would love an opportunity to work in travel PT.

Thank you for your prayers they are most appreciated and needed.

From Ukraine

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As I write this letter, I acknowledge that these are turbulent times. Like the rest of the world, Ukraine has been touched by the pandemic, although not as badly. As we walk through these new experiences, it is enormously important that we not allow ourselves to get distracted from our hope in Jesus.

I want to share with you what through your support I have been able to accomplish on behalf of the poor and oppressed people in Uzhhorod and the surrounding towns and villages.

As I have mentioned in previous letters, I have partnered with a Ukrainian missionary named Timea who works with an Ukraine-based organization by the name of Hope and Life Ukraine. We bring food, but most importantly we bring prayer to poor Roma and Ukraine families. I have now supplied 3 families with chickens for eggs and three goats for milk and meat.

Several days ago Timea and I visited families in a town outside Uzhhorod. When visiting one home, we were greeted by a father with a large extended family. He is someone who experienced many hardships in the Soviet times; he is a big bear of a man. When we prayed with him tears came to his eyes. The message we shared was one of hope and love that God is always with him, always listens and never changes.

I have begun the same type of ministry with Pastor Vadim from the church I attend. I am working with him to bring prayer and food to more people. We are using Christ's message to enable us to expose more people to the Good News of Jesus.

Let me share future walks with Christ that thanks to you I am able to be a part of. We are working on a business plan to build affordable housing in the region by partnering with a Ukrainian carpenter named Zhenya. He will mentor and teach young Roma and Ukrainian men skills in carpentry and plumbing. We have also written a business plan to enable us to buy the land to start a farm to provide a source for meat for families in need. We will employ several locals and I plan to also move out on the farm to live.

I would like to leave you with the following scripture to ponder: 2 Timothy 4:5

"Praises for God's continued love and guidance His Holy Spirit that will guide us Strength and trust that only God can give"

Prayer for Peace in Ukraine: Protection and provision

Peace be with you.

His,

Gary Powell

Redeemer's missionary in Ukraine

As Stewards of God

Learning to give is an act of faith – faith that as we give, the Lord will give to us. As stewards of God we commit to many acts of support and kindness. It is our choice to give and to put the Lord's work above our own perceived needs.

During this time of change and perhaps frustration, our focus can easily move from the Lord's work to our personal challenges. Always remember that Redeemer is here to help, to listen, to support. Mother Catherine is always available to talk about any needs, to help with resources, and to reach out in prayer for support and guidance.

One challenge that we have faced as a church family is our inability to gather. That has disrupted our routines and sometimes our practice of regular pledging. Redeemer's monetary needs continue and in some ways have grown as we support the community and our Outreach partners. If you regularly give during the service, consider the following ways to maintain your pledge.

- Mail your pledge Church of the Redeemer
120 Mauldin Road Greenville 29605
- Drop your pledge at Redeemer Monday through Thursday
- Set up auto-pay through your bank – a check will be mailed
- Set up auto-pay with direct deposit to Redeemer through your bank – work with Sue for Pay-pal information

Of course, if COVID-19 has impacted your family and your pledge needs to be adjusted or changed or if you need assistance of any kind, please contact Mother Catherine. As shared earlier, she is willing and available to support each of us and help us through difficult times.

Blessings and God's Peace to all.
Debbie Bauer, Stewardship

A prayer from Pastor Nadia Bolz-Weber

I do not know when we can gather together again in worship, Lord.

So, for now I just ask that:

When I sing along in my kitchen to each song on Stevie Wonder's Songs in The Key of Life Album, may it be counted as praise.
(Happy 70th Birthday, Stevie!)

And that when I read the news and my heart tightens in my chest, may it be counted as a Kyrie.

And that when my eyes brighten in a smile behind my mask
as I thank the cashier
may it be counted as passing the peace.

And that when I water my plants and wash my dishes and take a shower may it be counted as remembering my baptism.

And that when the tears come and my shoulders shake and my breathing falters, may it be counted as prayer.

And that when I stumble upon a Tabitha Brown video and hear her grace and love of you may it be counted as a hearing a homily.

And that as I sit at that table in my apartment, and eat one more homemade meal, slowly, joyfully, with nothing else demanding my time or attention, may it be counted as communion.

Amen.

From the Office

I continue to get the mail, make deposits, and pay the bills. If you are concerned about your pledge being received in the mail, please call and let me know that it is on the way. I will let you know that it was received.

We are collecting photos of your family at home and out and about during this time for our videos and facebook page. If there is anything you would like to share, please send it along to Sue Bannio via email:

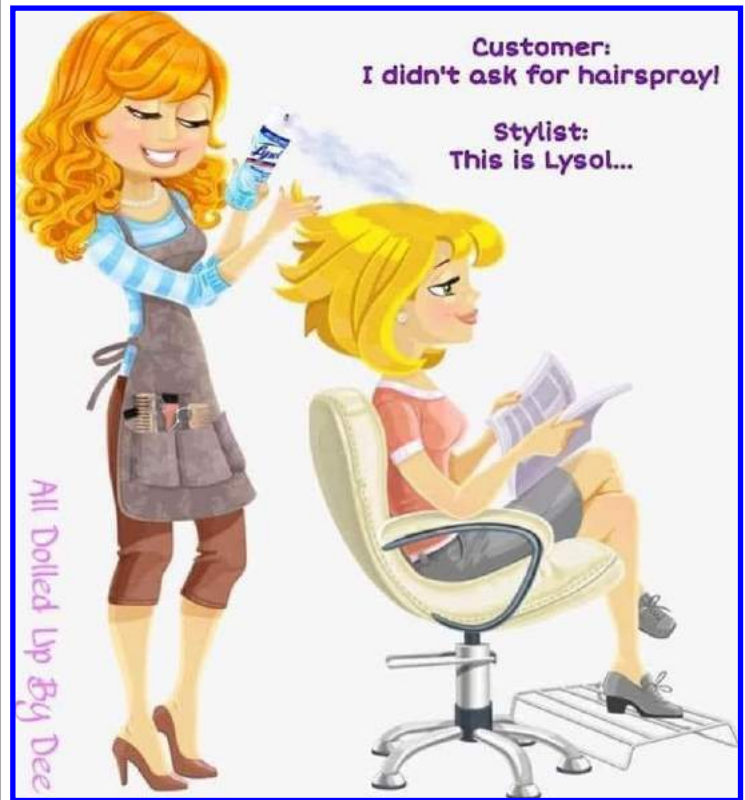

If you have any questions please call:

(864)277-4562 or email : parishadmin@corpsc.org.

Thank you for your continued support of
The Church of the Redeemer.

BIBLE STUDY*Save the Date!

Redeemer will begin a bible study (on Zoom for now) during June and July on the books of the Apocrypha.

Our "background" book will be "Invitation to the Apocrypha" by Daniel J. Harrington, S.J. Join us! Please send Catherine your email with your "yes" to study together!

Samaritan House

We are collecting Canned Tomatoes for Samaritan House this month.

Your generosity in providing food for others is greatly appreciated!!!

Thank you!
