Collect of the Day

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

O Lord, make us have perpetual love and reverence for your holy Name, for you never fail to help and govern those whom you have set upon the sure foundation of your loving-kindness; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

People: Amen.

You may be seated for the readings.

First Reading

1 Samuel 17:32-49

David said to Saul, "Let no one's heart fail because of him; your servant will go and fight with this Philistine." Saul said to David, "You are not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him; for you are just a boy, and he has been a warrior from his youth." But David said to Saul, "Your servant used to keep sheep for his father; and whenever a lion or a bear came, and took a lamb from the flock, I went after it and struck it down, rescuing the lamb from its mouth; and if it turned against me, I would catch it by the jaw, strike it down, and kill it. Your servant has killed both lions and bears; and this uncircumcised Philistine shall be like one of them, since he has defied the armies of the living God." David said, "The Lord, who saved me from the paw of the lion and from the paw of the bear, will save me from the hand of this Philistine." So Saul said to David, "Go, and may the Lord be with you!" Saul clothed David with his armor; he put a bronze helmet on his head and clothed him with a coat of mail. David strapped Saul's sword over the armor, and he tried in vain to walk, for he was not used to them. Then David said to Saul, "I cannot walk with these; for I am not used to them." So David removed them. Then he took his staff in his hand, and chose five smooth stones from the wadi, and put them in his shepherd's bag, in the pouch; his sling was in his hand, and he drew near to the Philistine. The Philistine came on and drew near to David, with his shield-bearer in front of him. When the Philistine looked and saw David, he disdained him, for he was only a youth, ruddy and handsome in appearance. The Philistine said to David, “Am I a dog, that you come to me with sticks?” And the Philistine cursed David by his gods. The Philistine said to David, “Come to me, and I will give your flesh to the birds of the air and to the wild animals of the field.” But David said to the Philistine, “You come to me with sword and spear and javelin; but I come to you in the name of the Lord of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied. This very day the Lord will deliver you into my hand, and I will strike you down and cut off your head; and I will give the dead bodies of the Philistine army this very day to the birds of the air and to the wild animals of the earth, so that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel, and that all this assembly may know that the Lord does not save by sword and spear; for the battle is the Lord’s and he will give you into our hand.” When the Philistine drew nearer to meet David, David ran quickly toward the battle line to meet the Philistine. David put his hand in his bag, took out a stone, slung it, and struck the Philistine on his forehead; the stone sank into his forehead, and he fell face down on the ground.

The Psalm

Psalm 133

- 1   Oh, how good and pleasant it is, *
     when brethren live together in unity!
- 2   It is like fine oil upon the head *
     that runs down upon the beard,
- 3   Upon the beard of Aaron, *
     and runs down upon the collar of his robe.
- 4   It is like the dew of Hermon *
     that falls upon the hills of Zion.
- 5   For there the LORD has ordained the blessing: *
     life for evermore.

Second Reading

2 Corinthians 6:1-13

As we work together with Christ, we urge you also not to accept the grace of God in vain. For he says, “At an acceptable time I have listened to you, and on a day of salvation I have helped you.” See, now is the acceptable time; see, now is the day of salvation! We are putting no obstacle in anyone’s way, so that no fault may be found with our ministry, but as servants of God we have commended ourselves in every way: through great endurance, in afflictions, hardships, calamities, beatings, imprisonments, riots, labors, sleepless nights, hunger; by purity, knowledge, patience, kindness, holiness of spirit, genuine love, truthful speech, and the power of God; with the weapons of righteousness for the right hand and for the left; in honor and dishonor, in ill repute and good repute. We are treated as impostors, and yet are true; as unknown, and yet are well known; as dying, and see-- we are alive; as punished, and yet not killed; as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing everything. We have spoken frankly to you Corinthians; our heart is wide open to you. There is no restriction in our affections, but only in yours. In return-- I speak as to children-- open wide your hearts also.

The Holy Gospel

Mark 4:35-41

Celebrant:       The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ According to Mark.

People:           Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When evening had come, Jesus said to his disciples, "Let us go across to the other side." And leaving the crowd behind, they took him with them in the boat, just as he was. Other boats were with him. A great windstorm arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that the boat was already being swamped. But he was in the stern, asleep on the cushion; and they woke him up and said to him, "Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?" He woke up and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Peace! Be still!" Then the wind ceased, and there was a dead calm. He said to them, "Why are you afraid? Have you still no faith?" And they were filled with great awe and said to one another, "Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?"

Spiritual Communion Prayer

(If you are participating in this liturgy from a distance, the Church teaches that the full sacramental benefit of the Eucharist can be received by desire alone. Even in a time of physical separation from the Altar, you are loved and held by the One who created the world and gave it shape. If you wish, you may use this prayer of spiritual communion to focus your desire.)

In union, blessed Jesus, with the faithful gathered at every altar of your Church where your blessed Body and Blood are offered this day, I long to offer you praise and thanksgiving, for creation and all the blessings of this life, for the redemption won for us by your life, death, and resurrection, for the means of grace and the hope of glory. I believe that you are truly present in the Holy Sacrament, and, since I cannot at this time receive communion, I pray you to come into my heart. I unite myself with you and embrace you with all my heart, my soul, and my mind. Let nothing separate me from you; let me serve you in this life until, by your grace, I come to your glorious kingdom and unending peace. Amen.

JOB OPENINGS

Redeemer is receiving information about job openings in the area. Please see the bulletin board outside the office for more information, or contact the parish office for more information.

EVENING PRAYER and BIBLE STUDY on Zoom

Is on break for the summer. We will resume in September. Please let Catherine know what you would like to study.

To receive the zoom link email Rev. Catherine Tatem: revctatem@gmail.com

Garth Clean Up Day

Join us on Saturday, June 26 as we clean up the Garth at Redeemer.

Bring your rakes, shovels, gloves and other yard tools to the Garth on Saturday from 8am to 10am.

Contact Daniel McCullough with any questions: 982-2498.

Out of Town

Sue, our Parish Administrator, will be attending an out of town family funeral from June 22 through June 24. We will have volunteers in the office to address your parish needs. Please keep the family of Peter Culton, Sue's father-in-law, in your prayers. Peter, a retired fireman, passed away on Sunday, June 13, 2021.

We will welcome our new deacon, The Rev. Deacon Janet Atkins, in July.

Rector on Vacation

Our Rector, Catherine, will be on vacation from Tuesday, June 22 through Saturday, June 26. If you have needs that can wait until she returns, that would be great. Or you may contact our Senior Warden, Bill Heizer at 864-905-9884. If you need her immediate assistance you may call her on her cell phone at 864-350-4270.

There will not be service on Wednesday, June 23.

Sip, Snack & Socialize

Sip, Snack, & Socialize is the new name for "coffee hour" or "lemonade on the lawn." Many visitors and parishioners enjoy this time together. Visitors are provided a time to be part of the community.

Fellowship would like parishioners and others to provide the snacks. The church will continue to provide water and lemonade. The volunteer will provide two (and only two) different types of snacks. Parishioners can contribute by bringing prepackaged snacks or monetary donations to purchase them. You can sign up in the narthex or contact Annette Burdette at annettburd@gmail.com.

You are ... where??

Redeemer residents we want to put you on the map!
A Greenville county map is in the Transept.

Your last name is attached to the bulletin board with a pin;
Please locate where you live and pin your name on the map.

Don't worry we're not going to stop in for a surprise visit. :-)
We would like to get a better visual of where everyone lives.

Thanks for your help!

ECHOES

Echoes is our monthly newsletter that arrives at your home every month. There are a lot of people that help to pull each edition together, from the vestry to the office angels and the ministry schedulers.....it takes everyone! THANK YOU!!!

Our Next edition will be our special summer edition which includes July and August and will be at your house in July. Please send all Summer Submissions to Sue Bannio at corgsc29605@gmail.com no later than July 24.

Sometimes all it takes to bring someone back to church is an item in the mail that shows that a community cares. If you know someone who could benefit by receiving Echoes at their home, please send their name and full address to the parish office.

Every week we mail the bulletin and last week's sermon to our homebound friends. If you or anyone you know, are homebound and would like to receive this mailing, please let the parish office know.

You can reach the parish office by contacting Sue Bannio at 277-4562 or parishadmin@corgsc.org.

Prayers of the People

The Church of the Redeemer has a faithful and strong prayer ministry. If you would like to add someone's name to the prayer list, please fill out a form in the pew rack and place it in the offering plate or contact the parish office. Please let the parish office know when a name can be removed from our prayers.

Thank you for your help in keeping our prayer list up to date!
