From The Rector

Rev. Catherine Tatem

They Were All in One Place

It is still on my bulletin board, a cartoon that reads: "The building is closed. The church is open." The Church of the Redeemer did not close over the last year, but it sure felt like it sometimes. Made for community, we grieve when we cannot be together. This past Sunday, the Day of Pentecost included this description:

"They were all in one place."

What a powerful day, then and now. I was moved to tears of joy at seeing friends we have not seen in over a year. I look forward to the coming weeks when more people feel comfortable coming back to church, when even more restrictions ease.

If you have been at home since the pandemic's shutdowns, the feel of church has probably changed; the Eucharist is received in word, not body; people are on video; there are no joyful distractions of children's voices, someone whispering, the feel of being the body of Christ. At some point, you realize that "pajama church" is not much fun anymore. You are not being fed, nor offering your gifts to your faith family. A combination of factors leave us uneasy. You may have begun to question: "Do I still belong there? Are these my people? ... Is there a place for me?"

The answer to those questions is a resounding "yes." Actually, YES, YES, YES! You belong to the body of Christ and are an integral part of The Church of the Redeemer and the wider church body. The body is not complete until we are all the body. Paul writes:

"Indeed, the body does not consist of one member but of many.... If one member suffers, all suffer together with it; if one member is honoured, all rejoice together with it...."

There are many gift of the Spirit in the (church) body. You belong. We are one in Christ. And there is not only a place for you, we are not complete until you are here. Let's continue our journey in Christ that was disrupted or at least distorted early in 2020. We have so much to celebrate!

Our summer begins with joy and celebration, with continued reaching out to those who need to isolate, and with prayer for the many parts of the world still inundated with coronavirus. We have opportunities for everyone for volunteering and for socializing. Come to the office and fold the newsletter, pull a weed or two; now that we can, stay after church and talk with people; introduce yourself to someone you do not know. We are all part of the body. In this mid-year moment, we are part of God's new creation – that of a "lessened pandemic" creation – what shall we create?

Join the celebration! Alleluia!

In peace,

Catherine+

Vestry Meeting Minutes

The minutes for the monthly Vestry meeting can be found posted on the bulletin board outside the office.

Here We Come!

Re-building, re-connecting, re-energizing...whatever you call it, Redeemer is now picking up the pace forward once again. What a great feeling to shake off those pandemic bonds and sing out "Alleluia! Go ahead and shout it if you want: 'Alleluia!'" We can be heard much clearer and for a greater distance if done together with gusto! Make no mistake about it, Reverend Catherine is juggling the 'Charge of the Redeemer Brigade', but let's make very sure when she looks to the left of her, to the right of her, above and behind her, she sees us close ranks to pitch in, be the church, and support each other in all things. The Redeemer way is 'One for all and all for one'. We have high expectations of ourselves and our Rector. Are you up for it? Then let's get after it. Ask me or any member of the Vestry about the opportunities available to join in, participate and reap the rewards. We're back, folks!

Christian Education

I am looking forward to summer more than usual, how about you? School is already out or for some of you, there are only a few days left until summer break...hip, hip, hooray! Longer days and warmer weather are a welcome sign of a season that will have a slower pace for most of us. Summer for the church is also a little more laid back and can be a time to rest and recharge. The year 2020 was filled with so much stress. There were so many things to process, question, and lose sleep over. Most of us are just ready to move on and have some normalcy. I am looking forward to the moving on part, and I am sure you are as well! In my humble opinion, summer could not be a more perfect season for the time we are living in right now.

What do you want summer to look like for the church?

This last year we have seen lockdowns, loss, and despair. However, there were many good things that happened as well. If you are reading this, that means God has blessed you with another day to open your eyes and seek out the joy of the moment! I think that is what Jesus wants us to do as a church as well.

What if this summer we dedicated some time to recharge and reconnect at Redeemer? In addition to having our regular worship services during the week, what if we use this time when our schedules are a little lighter to focus on how we can draw closer to each other? Plans are in the works for some opportunities to volunteer in the community, and there may be a cookout in the near future.

Reconnection at Redeemer is about each of us. Each of us must make the choice to come together with our church family. You may already be doing this when you come to church for worship in the building or online. All relationships need faith, hope, and love, and our church family is no exception.

So, throw your name in the hat and get in the game! Tell us what your thoughts and ideas are to make all of us at Redeemer stronger and closer as a family and to our neighbors.

"And the Lord will guide you always."

Update on Nursery

The nursery space is now available for children 4 and under with their parents to use during the 9:30am service.

The nursery will remain unstaffed at this time.

Parents and caregivers are welcome to use the space for their child's needs (diaper change, feeding etc.)

Please make sure to sign in on the sheet in the nursery to let us know you have been there.

We ask that you clean everything that was used during your time in the nursery. Sanitizing products are provided.

Please contact Lori Hawkins at lhredeemer@gmail.com with any questions.

You are ... where??

Redeemer residents we want to put you on the map!

A Greenville county map is in the Transept.

Your last name is attached to the bulletin board with a pin;
Please locate where you live and pin your name on the map.

Don't worry we're not going to stop in for a surprise visit.
We would like to get a better visual of where everyone lives.

Thanks for your help!

Youth Sunday and Teacher Recognition

Thank you to all the youth that participated in the service on Sunday May 16.

It is a privilege and blessing for me to hold a role in youth formation at Redeemer.

It is pure JOY to watch them grow in their faith, form lasting friendships, and strengthen their relationship with Jesus Christ.

Thank you to all the teachers and Nursery staff that volunteered this past year.

Your time with the youth of the church was cut short due to covid, but is still so very much appreciated and needed.

Truly, without our church family of volunteers
there would be no ministry for the youth.

I am cautiously optimistic and excited of the prospect that Christian education will be back this fall!

If you have a graduate in your family, please be sure to send us their information so that we can recognize them in our June edition of Echoes.

Have a wonderful summer!

God's Peace,
Lori

2021 GRADUATES

CONGRATULATIONS to

Riley Hawkins

on his graduation from JL Mann High School.

Dear Redeemer Friends,

It's hard to believe that I'm about to graduate high school. I don't think it has really set in yet. Somewhere in the back of my mind I keep thinking that I'll be going back there in the fall. With that change in mind I'm glad to know that church will remain a constant in my life.

For those of you that don't know me, my name is Riley Hawkins, and I'm a senior at JL Mann High School. In the fall I plan on attending Greenville Tech... and I couldn't tell you what I want to do there. I still need to figure out what career path I want to pursue, all I can tell you right now is that I'm thinking about a career in film. Because I'm going to Greenville Tech I won't be leaving or anything like that, I'll still be right here. So this isn't a goodbye. I instead wanted to take this time to thank all of you.

The Church of the Redeemer really has been a second home to me. I've probably spent more time in this building than any other, aside from my house of course. My family has been going to Redeemer for as long as I can remember. I went through Godly Play, Sanctus, Hands of God, and Doves Nest. I was at nearly every EYC from 6th to 12th grade. I've volunteered at nearly everything imaginable, from selling ducks, to unloading pumpkins. I went to every VBS and Summer of Service. I've been a ventriloquist with a Cheetah puppet, a cave explorer, and even the father of Jesus. I've also been an acolyte for an undeterminable number of years. It's safe to say that a large part of my growing up has happened here. I spent many days over the summer hanging out at church while my mom worked. In elementary school I remember leaving school early some days towards the end of the year, just so we could go to church and start setting up early for Vacation Bible School.

I have tons of great memories here, and I honestly wouldn't trade my time here for anything. And all the events, the volunteering, the trips, the activities they've all been great, but of course they wouldn't have been nearly the same without all the people here. If Redeemer is like a second home then the people of Redeemer act as a second family to me. Around here we say a lot about having a church family, and I truly believe that.

All of you have helped to shape me into who I am today. And while I still have a lot of room to grow and improve, I can never thank you enough for the impacts you've already made on my life. As well as the ones I know you're going to continue to make.

I know I'm not the most talkative person at church, and so I haven't always said how I felt or what I wanted to say. So I'd like to take this opportunity to thank a few people specifically. I'd like to thank Mrs. Margie and Mrs. Kathy for teaching in Sunday school. There were Sundays I didn't want to miss just because of some of the lessons you had planned. And I know it wasn't always easy to teach us, so I just wanted to let you know I appreciate it. I want to thank Mr. Ken for being a great mentor. From all the hard work during Rebuild Upstate to teaching me how to ski. I probably would have never learned how to ski without you. I want to thank Mrs. Celia for also teaching me how to ski and helping me my first time on a ski lift. Those ski trips are some of my favorite memories, I always looked forward to them. I want to thank Mr. Joe for making EYC better and for being there if I ever needed someone. I also want to thank Mr. Wallace and Mr. Helm for helping me whenever I was an acolyte. And I can't leave out my EYC group. I especially want to thank Will for being my soup kitchen drinks partner and my ski buddy, and George for also making EYC, and ski trips better. Those nights hanging out at the resort during ski trips were always great.

And I want to thank everyone else for always being so nice and welcoming at all times. I really do appreciate each and every one of you, even if I didn't say our name. And last but not least I want to thank my family, my parents and my brother, for everything they've done for me. You've all made me who I am today, this church has and always will mean a lot to me. I can't imagine being anywhere else.

Thank you,
Riley Hawkins

Sip ~ Snack ~ Socialize

Come sip, snack and socialize!!

Fellowship

We're calling it: Sip, Snack, and Socialize!

After church on Sundays for the summer we are gathering outside to share conversation and a few treats. We encourage you to stay and talk with friends and make new friends! The Fellowship committee will provide water and lemonade or iced tea, either individual containers or one person (only) serving.

As we come back to this time of fellowship, we need your help! Please sign up for a Sunday on which you and your family will provide a few snacks, and set up/clean up. Prepackaged items are ideal as we transition to "pre-Post-Covid." You may also help by bringing snacks and putting them in the small kitchen off the transept. There is a cupboard that we are happy to fill again! You may also make a cash offering to the "basket" if that is easiest for you. A sign-up sheet is in the narthex and will be at the refreshments table on Sundays.

For July, let's gather on the 4th! Details forthcoming. To volunteer to help, please contact Annette Burdette: annettburd@gmail.com. We will need many hands to have a great celebration after church.

Would you like to attend a Greenville Drive game? Lori Hawkins has some plans in the works for volunteering and attending. Play ball!

For August, we would like to gather at some of the outdoor venues in and around Greenville. Do you have a favorite gathering place or music venue? For example, some subdivisions and parks have free music in the summer. Please contact Annette to gather a group to attend your favorite place!

Let's enjoy one another this summer, catch up on our lives, and share time together.

Look forward to kicking off fall programming with outdoor worship and a potluck (?) meal on the second Sunday of September – the annual picnic is back! Many plans are in the works: some remembering (of outdoor worship), welcome back from summer, and "Hello!" to one another. Mark your calendars!

A final note:

I saw this quotation recently and thought you might enjoy it.

"The point is not to pay back kindness but to pass it on."

Julia Alvarez.

So pass on kindness. It is a worthwhile goal to have daily.

Transportation

There have been requests from time to time for parishioner transportation needs (attend the Sunday and Wednesday church services, pick up prescriptions, doctor office visits, to and from hospital or doctor's office for treatments).

Pastoral Care is looking for both those individuals who have such needs, which would normally be short term, but could be long term and those who could provide transportation to fill such needs.

If you feel that this might be a ministry that could help you or the Lord is calling you to help with, please contact one of the following:

Carol Hallman (Transportation coordinator - 864.244.0867, cphallman@yahoo.com)

Greg Brown (Pastoral Care Leader - 864.346.9124: cell/text, gregdbrown2@juno.com)

Join us in JUNE for our on-line bible study!

We will Zoom together on the first and third Wednesdays starting at 6:30pm for Evening prayer. Bible study will immediately follow.

Everyone is welcome!

Samaritan House

We are collecting canned Tomatoes for Samaritan House this month.

Your generosity in providing food for others is greatly appreciated!!!

Thank you!

The Way of Love

There are many ways to get healthy and strong: eating healthy foods, exercising, and improving our spiritual lives. Yes, our prayer and worship matter. Last month I introduced "The Way of Love;" have you taken your Personal Spiritual Inventory yet? Please do! Go to: www.episcopalchurch.org/way-of-love/my-way-of-love/ and click on the blue "Get started" button.

You will receive a helpful summary of your spiritual life right now. Then, for eight weeks, once a week, you will receive an individual email with practices to strengthen your spiritual life. These are interesting and helpful. Join in to practice getting your spiritual life healthy and strong!

PVC Luncheon

On April 29th, Redeemer hosted a gathering of the Pleasant Valley Connection seniors. Approximately 35 ladies attended the picnic lunch sponsored by the PVC board of directors. Spinx donated all of the food. The ladies were so appreciative of the opportunity to dress up and socialize. Many had not left their homes since the beginning of the pandemic.

Vestry Spotlight

Serving on the Vestry gives one the opportunity to be “in the know”. At meetings, it allows you to share concerns, offer suggestions, and make decisions. People often ask “what do wardens do?” Basically you are lay partners with your rector. The Sr. Warden is the rector’s right hand man and the Jr. Warden is the voice of the people. We meet periodically with the rector and once a month with all vestry members to discuss how we can become better disciples of Christ. We also discuss how we are doing and what needs to be done.

I also serve as chairman of the building and grounds commission, which keeps me busy. It’s my responsibility to ensure the grounds are kept up and immediate repairs are being completed.

I am in the process of creating a “project list” getting estimates for what needs to be done, what we would like to have done and future capital projects.

In the meantime, as we emerge from the pandemic, we have an opportunity to bring our church family back together. We can make a difference in our lives and community by worshipping God, finding and experiencing God in new places. You can volunteer for one event, one day, one week, one month, or one year. Opportunities are everywhere.

I am here for you. If you have any questions, concerns, suggestions please let me know, I am here for you. Looking forward to seeing you in church.

-Stephany Austell

Garth Update

The garth committee met in May to go over current maintenance needed on the existing plantings and future projects to pursue. It is with great excitement that I get to announce that, through a generous donation, we will be replacing the old wooden fence with a new screening material to be determined at a later date after further counsel with the committee and donor. We will be sure to keep everyone abreast in this future construction.

In preparation for this improvement, we want to arrange a garth work day in conjunction with, what Reverend Catherine has coined, a garth shower! The garth is in great need of an updated and improved inventory of work tools (shovels, rakes, pruners, loppers, hoes, pitch forks, hedge trimmers, etc.) We would like to propose a work day on June 26th from 8:00am-10:30am where you can bring a new tool and use it for a day of upkeep and improvement, including a shed cleanout and restocking with the tools donated.

If you would like to participate please RSVP to me at daniel@bluewatercivil.com or 864-982-4135 and let me know what tool you would like to donate so we do not have overlap. Additionally, if you would like to donate a plant and bring it to be planted during the work day, we’d love to see some new foliage!

Hope to see you out there!

- Daniel J. McCullough

Our parish administrator, Sue Bannio, will be on vacation from June 7 through June 10. Volunteers will be in the office to take your calls and answer questions.

Call-In Report

February/March Congregation Call-In Report

It's been a long (really long) year, hasn't it? Twelve months of pandemic mode leave most of us itching to get back to the way life used to be. And Redeemer parishioners are no different. When the vestry launched another phone campaign to check in with folks recently, they heard again and again that we want to be back in church in person with one another! While live streaming and videos serve their purpose, "it just doesn't feel the same."

Since resuming live worship, Redeemer is averaging between 50 and 60 (max at the time of the calls) people at Sunday service. Some parishioners are still hesitant to join in because of their daily outside contacts or because of their own health concerns. Others find it stressful to wear masks, but reiterate how important it is to be in church together. We miss music, children's education, coffee hour, and hugs.

Wednesday services have provided a good option for some; the services are smaller in number attending and provide a more intimate worship experience.

What else did the vestry hear during their calls? Here are a few comments:

- ♦ Most people have internet, are receiving Echoes and other communications from the church, as well as some being kept up-to-date by fellow parishioners.
- ♦ We heard family news: new grandchildren, travel with family, retirement, upcoming knee replacements, loss of family pets and the welcoming of new ones.
- ♦ "Overall, Redeemer is doing a good job," as one parishioner phrased it.

The vestry thanks everyone who took the time to talk and to give feedback. If you did not receive a call and would like to participate, please contact one of the Membership Committee members: Greg Brown (864-346-9124) or Cynthia Eason (864-787-2288). We welcome the opportunity to talk with you!

Knitting

As the lazy days of summer stretch ahead, are you getting out your knitting needles, crochet hooks, or other crafts? Would you like a group to chat with while you work? Let's start getting together on Wednesday mornings at about 10:30, after the 9:30 service, for some crafting and chatting in the Parlor. No advance sign-up needed; no commitment necessary.

Just bring your latest project and join us. See Margie Hankinson if you need more details.

Bishops Visit

The Right Reverend W. Andrew Waldo made a special trip over from Columbia to meet with Redeemer's Vestry on the evening of April 28th. He requested in advance that we prepare any questions we would like to ask him, but not to send them to him beforehand. He preferred we have an informal, relaxed conversation about anything we wanted to discuss rather than a structured, programmed session with little flexibility.

Having been around Bishop Waldo before, my assessment of him continues unchanged. He is an intelligent, well-versed theologian who loves the Diocesan membership and is very willing to listen, learn and freely discuss any topic concerning our faith and practices...and he is quick to smile and laugh too!

Everyone present asked at least one question; the variety of subjects covered was impressive as were the Bishop's answers. One of my questions was: "Have there been a couple of really innovative ideas among the parishes of the Diocese that caught your attention that you might share with us?" More on that next month. -Bill Heizer

He gave us his history as Bishop including many humorous times. He has regularly visited the 59 parishes in the upper state of South Carolina dioceses. I found Bishop Waldo to be extremely conscious of the current unrest and in finding ways for parishioners to deal with it. My question to him was what was he looking forward to in his retirement and his reply was quick. He wants to spend more time with his grandchildren. I am grateful for this time spent with Bishop Waldo.

-Annette Burdette

I felt that Redeemer was honored by a visit from Bishop Waldo as he completed a round of visits to our Diocese before his upcoming retirement. The thing that intrigued me the most about the bishop's stories was that he had traveled with our Presiding Bishop Curry to Africa and visited an old Anglican Church there. It overlooked a "stockade" which once housed black slaves awaiting ships to North America. What a powerful image! I think on it as I contemplate race relations in our country today. -Margie Hankinson

I felt the Bishop's visit was a good opportunity to gain insight to various programs that have been successful within the diocese and to remind us that we are the diocese. It was an informal meeting that allowed each vestry member to ask questions.

I particularly enjoyed the Bishop's stories concerning Presiding Bishop Curry. Bishop knew him a number of years before he was elected to Presiding Bishop.
