“When love is the way, there’s plenty good room, plenty good room for all of God’s children.”

The above words from our Presiding Bishop Michael Curry keep coming to mind in this season of The Church of the Redeemer’s life. As a community, we offer “plenty good room” for so many of God’s children.

On a recent Friday, some young people found room around a bonfire to talk, break bread, and pray. Pray? I’m not sure that they realized that prayer happened. Toward the end of our time together, the participants moved closer together around the fire circle. Their coming together was beautiful, unspoken prayer, a gathering of hearts in community. Lori Hawkins and I looked on, noticing and feeling this spontaneous, beautiful prayer. There’s “plenty good room” for future gatherings; I hope that this one was the first of many.

Our pews continue to fill with a few more people each week: returning parishioners, visitors, and new members. Our choir sounds beautiful; their voices multiply well beyond their number. We continue to move ahead with hope and the joy of being in community, in person. There’s “plenty good room” for more, for you!

As we see one another and gather, I sense a renewed energy and spirit of creativity. What is on your mind? Perhaps there is a new ministry in your heart, or an idea to expand our current ministries within and outside of the church. Please come forward and share. There’s “plenty good room” for you, your ideas, and your help.

At the beginning of the school year, your generous contributions provided forty-one children at Pleasant Valley Connection their backpacks and school supplies to begin their academic year. With your generosity, we will be able to replenish some supplies mid-year. Thank you for the room in your hearts for some of God’s children in Greenville.

Love is the way, friends. I am so thankful to be living into Christ’s love with you, serving the holy, hopeful church named Redeemer.

In Christ,

Catherine+

Vestry Meeting Minutes

The minutes for the monthly Vestry meeting can be found posted on the bulletin board outside the office.

The Unknown and Known

Recently Louise and I were in a foreign country on vacation. Though it had been a busy day, we decided to stroll that Sunday night despite not being familiar with the city we were in.

While following a narrow, cobblestoned street, we turned a corner and came upon 150-200 people gathered outside a Catholic Church in a large, dimly lit square. A children's choir was singing accompanied by a violinist. It was a beautiful, almost magical moment followed by sacramental words spoken by a priest. Actually there were three priests and they separated and walked into the crowd to administer wafers to those desiring communion. We were on the fringe of the crowd with no one beside or behind us. I cannot explain it, but I distinctly felt a gentle push in the direction of one of the priests. We joined the "strangers" moving toward the priest to receive communion, then, afterwards, moved on. It was one of the most moving experiences we had on our vacation.

When our vacation ended, we were waiting for our plane when three young Afghanistan men sat down opposite us. They each had a fresh haircut, inexpensive new clothes, a knapsack and a look of confused concern on their faces. They also had small placards on their chests stating that assistance, if needed, would be greatly appreciated because they didn't speak English. They were experiencing the totally unknown and we wondered if their faith was as comforting to them as ours is to us.

None of us can predict the unknown, but to slow down and acknowledge the many blessings we have been given every day of every year is comforting, reassuring and reinforcing for the future...and then some. Redeemer is a welcoming home God has provided for us and others. We have much to reflect on, be thankful for and to look forward to.

May each of us have a wonderful Thanksgiving with Christ present in our hearts and heads.

-Bill Heizer
Senior Warden

Thanksgiving Altar

Remember the Thanksgiving Altar in your plans this November. Once again we will be adorning the altar with food to represent our thankfulness for the bounty that God has given us and that we can share with others less fortunate. All food and money will be donated to charity. We are asking a $10 donation for this project. All contributions and dedications are due in the office by November 17 to be acknowledged in the bulletin on Nov. 21.

Forms will be in the bulletin and on our website.

Christian Education

Thanks and Prayers!

These two words are on my mind for November. On November 7, Prayer Pumpkins will be given out at Redeemer. For the month of November, we will write our prayers on the pumpkin we have brought home. What is on your mind? What or for whom are you praying?

The last couple of months I have been trying to grow my prayer life. How is it going you may ask? Some days are better than others. I have found that in this journey, I am becoming more thankful for all the everyday little things.

My family has an app. on our phones that notifies us when someone has arrived at one location or another (home, school, work, etc.) As a mom of teenagers, and someone who has always dealt with intense anxiety, this gives me such piece of mind. These little dings or alerts, that I receive have been prompting me to pray and be thankful. It is a quick and simple, "Thank you Lord for Josh getting safely to work," or "Riley has arrived safely at Chick-fil-a, thank you Jesus," or "Please Lord protect Joseph Ethan and all of these kids as they go through school today."

I always thought there must be a proper way to pray. A dear friend and mentor once told me to just pray where you are. Whatever the emotion: happy, sad, angry, confused, thankful. Pray where you are, because Jesus knows your needs and how you are feeling before we do.

All this being said, take your pumpkins and pray your heart out! Write the words and pray them aloud or silently. God hears them and knows them just like He knows every hair on our head. Be thankful. There is always something to be thankful for and give Him praise...we may need bigger pumpkins!!

God's Peace,

Lori

First Fruits 2022

*the yearly campaign for support of the ministries of
The Church of the Redeemer, Greenville, SC*

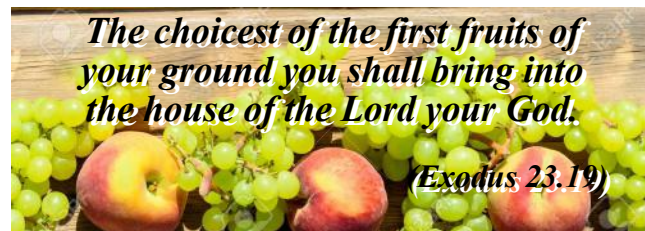

It's that time of the year, right? We often call it "stewardship," and we write and talk about time, talent, and treasure. In reality, stewardship happens throughout the year, and is based on our role as caretakers, with God, of all of God's creation.

Then God said, 'let [humankind] have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the wild animals of the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth.' (Genesis 1.26)

The particular component that our fall campaign addresses is funding the ministries of The Church of the Redeemer for the coming year and beyond. Because we work with currencies of the world, our funding comes from the fruits of our labor in the currency of dollars and cents. We fund with money; God "funds" our work with all of creation, providing us with everything that we need.

I ask you, for 2022, to prayerfully consider your Estimated Gift to The Church of the Redeemer. It is an Estimate because our circumstances change throughout the year, and our financial giving may change, too. There might be a raise this year, or the loss of a job, additional or less work and earning. In these and many other instances, our Estimated Gift may change. Consider giving a percentage of your income to the Church; in this case, your financial giving will change along with your income – in many times, increasing!

How should I give? Give first to something outside of yourself. Making your first payment of every month, of every year, to the church or another charity will change your life. Well, it changed mine. We begin to offer others our best, not our leftovers.

As I gave first to the church, I found joy, and a joy so full that I could not keep it to myself. That joy had to be poured out into the world. Now that pattern continues in many areas of my life, beyond vocation and beyond what I thought that I could do. Of course I could not give that way; God with me in through prayer, practice and thanksgiving for the abundance that God provides, can do more than I can even imagine.

How much do we give? Many say that the biblical standard of giving is the tithe. One biblical standard of giving is the tithe; that is, ten percent of what we earn. What is Jesus' model of giving? Jesus as the first fruit of all creation gave his life. And there is this story from Mark:

Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said, 'You lack one thing; go, sell what you own, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.' When he heard this, he was shocked and went away grieving, for he had many possessions.
(Mark 10.21-22)

Read carefully. First, Jesus looks at us and loves us. We are called to pray about the relationship between what we have and our relationship with Jesus. What relationship do we have with our possessions? How does that relationship compare to the relationship that we have with Jesus? Think and pray. Work toward a tithe. Calculate what you donate today, and then ... stretch, just a little. In a few months, share your story of giving. How is it working? What has changed in your life? Come and worship; go and tell. Sharing our life in Christ is the best story ever!

In the coming weeks, watch for your 2022 Giving Estimate. We will gather these on November 14 and celebrate the abundance that we have in Christ.

In all things, give thanks to the Lord.

Amen. Alleluia!

*Honor the Lord with your substance and with the first fruits of all your produce;
(Proverbs 3.9)*

Being a Vestry Member

I've been asked to tell you how serving on the Vestry has impacted my life...

This is my second three year term on the Vestry in the eight years I've been here at Redeemer, and serving on the Vestry has allowed me to get to know people here in ways that would not have been possible otherwise. I have enjoyed serving and working alongside the wonderful people of this congregation. We have worked together in various ministries and had lots of laughs along the way. I can honestly say that I have never felt overwhelmed or over my head, even during the two years I served as Senior Warden. If you're thinking that you're really not cut out for Vestry service, well you are!! If you enjoy spending time with Redeemer folks; if you enjoy working together with others for common goals; if you enjoy having a good time, then you're cut out for Vestry service. I invite you to consider joining us.

-Betty Boesch (Worship)

I love to be on the vestry because it is a way of serving the church that I dearly love. It makes me feel closer to the parishioners and to the other vestry members. Being on the vestry is about forming relationships as we serve and honor God.

-Annette Burdette (Fellowship)

I enjoy being on the vestry because it allows me to see the inner workings of The Church of the Redeemer, to see the needs of Redeemer, and to find a way to further serve God.

-Robin Mill (Outreach)

I like serving on the Vestry because I enjoy the challenges of planning, organizing and implementing as a member of the church leadership team. The close relationships developed with our Rector and my fellow Vestrypersons along the way is an added bonus!

- Bill Heizer (Sr. Warden)

I have served on several vestries through the years, once even as Senior Warden. Sometimes I have felt that the vestry was merely a rubber stamp for the priest, and that my input was neither wanted nor valuable.

Being on the vestry at Redeemer has been a different experience. I have felt a valued member of a group of people striving to bring Redeemer to its full potential in serving not only the present congregation, but the greater neighborhood. Each member of The Church of the Redeemer is valued, and being on the Vestry is a chance to give back to the church that loves and nurtures us.

-Margie Hankinson (Christian Ed.)

I have enjoyed church all of my life, but from a distance. I had my little group in church, but that was all. I saw others being very involved with the church and I envied their involvement. I didn't know how to get involved because I was somewhat introverted. I didn't go out of my way to introduce myself to others to expand my circle of friends. I finally decided that I could keep my circle of friends and give back to the church by being on the vestry. I instantly had about a dozen new friends, many whom I knew their face and name, but not much more. Those on the vestry are willing to provide help particularly when you might ask for help with your new responsibilities. There is no question that being on the vestry has helped me to be more engaged with my church family and to give back a little more to my church. It has been one of those experiences that I have felt I have been out of my comfort zone, but has definitely been worthwhile.

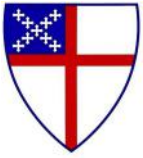

-Greg Brown (Membership)

By serving on the vestry, I get to act as a literal servant to God through steady acts in the church and, through leadership, grow closer to God than I would experience through my weekly pew attendance in Church.

-Daniel McCullough (Communications)

Serving on the Vestry gives me the opportunity to be "in the know". At meetings, it allows us to share concerns, offer suggestions, and make decisions. It's also an opportunity to work with others and get to know your church family better. You would be surprised how little it takes to make a difference for so many people.

-Stephany Austell (Jr. Warden)

THE CHURCH OF THE REDEEMER

Vestry Nominations – Class of 2024

The Vestry of The Church of the Redeemer is pleased to nominate Rick Hankinson as a candidate for election to the Vestry as members of the class of 2024. The Vestry is still seeking 3 others to serve your church for the next three years. Please let the parish office or a vestry member know you would like to serve on the vestry.

Vestry election will be held, Sunday November 21, 2021 during the service at 9:30am.

A brief biographical is provided for your reference.

Rick Hankinson

I have been at Redeemer for 14 years. Service, through and for the church, has included holding former terms as Vestry member here and in Ohio. I am currently serving in various capacities including Eucharistic Visitor, Outreach Committee, Samaritan House worker, Pleasant Valley Connection tutor (formerly on PVC board of directors), Men's Group facilitator, and most importantly – coffee maker.

Flowers on the altar are more than just an adornment for the front of our sanctuary. It is an historical tradition to show our thanks and humility to the Lord. It is a symbol of recognition of His Glory. Dedicating the offering in the name of someone is a great honor.

Our 2021 Altar dedication book is on the communication table for special dedications to be made.

Dedications are only $35, but the awe of honoring his Glory cannot be measured.

Thank you for your generosity!

Growing the Youth Ministry!

November 7 at 12 noon we will meet in the transept to discuss plans on how we can grow youth and young family attendance.

We find ourselves at a vital and exciting time to lay out a sustainable plan to grow the children's ministry as we move ahead. No matter what your age or how long you have been at Redeemer, we all have a significant role to play.

All adults are welcome and bring your ideas!

Email Lori @ Lhredeemer@gmail.com to let her know that you plan to attend!!

Samaritan House

We are collecting canned Green Beans for Samaritan House this month.

Your generosity in providing food for others is greatly appreciated!!!

Thank you!

I am a prayer pumpkin.
Who might need some extra prayers?
Write them on me along with your concerns or worries.

Advent

It's November and it's ... Advent?!

November is a liturgically rich month, beginning with All Saints Day on November first, continuing through the remainder of our "Sundays after Pentecost," and moving into Advent, which begins four Sundays before Christmas. This year Advent 1 is November 28th. The liturgical color for Advent is either purple, representing royalty (Christ the King), or "Marian blue," for Mary, the mother of Jesus.

Members of the Vestry are participating in a book discussion for Advent using the book Community, by Henri Nouwen.

Please join us online Nov. 24.

The introductory session is on Wednesday, November 24, online at anytime here:

<http://wp.henrinouwen.org/?p=1892#comment-37897>.

Each session thereafter is on Sunday. This is not a Zoom discussion, just online at the website.

This means that we can respond and comment on the readings at any time throughout the week, not being bound by time zones or a start/stop time. It's very flexible, and you will not be on camera. A reading schedule is forthcoming.

If you need assistance with purchasing the book, please see Mother Catherine.

The Councils of the Church

On Saturday, November 6, Redeemer's Rector and Convention Delegates will participate in the 99th Diocesan Convention of the Diocese of Upper South Carolina.

Each diocese's convention (also called Council in a few dioceses) is part of the history of councils of the Church, so we join in a tradition that stretches back to the apostolic era.

Attending from Redeemer: The Rev. Catherine Tatem, Bill Heizer, Stephany Austell, Rebekah Webb, Steve Webb, and alternates Margie Hankinson and Betty Boesch. Delegates meet four times a year and most recently cast their votes in the election of our next diocesan Bishop.

Convention is the culmination of work and ministry done throughout the year. We will be presented with the Diocesan "Statement of Mission" (budget) for 2022, hear committee/commission news and updates, we will have a meal together and worship. We will vote on resolutions brought to Convention. Overall, it is an interesting – and important – day. It is meaningful that everything we do is wrapped in worship; the work of the church is ministry, with Jesus at our center.

We give thanks for our delegates' ministries and encourage you to come forward to serve a term, becoming an active part of the councils of the Church.

With Thankful Hearts

At Thanksgiving we often go around our dinner table telling what we were thankful for.

This season our St. Therese Chapter of the Daughters of the King are very thankful for the ministry of The Rev. Deacon Lee Quinn.

Lee has been a faithful parishioner, deacon daughter, and our Chaplain. She has led us in prayer, mentored and taught us in our prayer and spiritual lives. We are very thankful to Lee for serving as our first Chaplain these past 6 years.

At the end of October, Lee retired from her service as our Chaplain and Catherine+ received the Chaplain's Cross from her to serve in that position. Lee will always be a Daughter praying for all of us. Thanks be to God for bringing her into our lives!!

-Phyllis Webb

Capitalizing on Capital Projects

With the generous gift of matching funds and contributions from members of Redeemer, we surpassed our goal of raising $20,000 toward capital projects and repairs at the church!

As of this printing $12,960 was donated from members and with the match we raised $22,960!

Any excess funds will be placed in the Capital account for future projects!
Thank you, thank you!

We have already completed the following and will work on the rest of our tasks quickly:

- ✓ Replaced the HVAC units in the Nursery/ Education wing
 - ✓ Replaced glue-laden flooring in the office hallway with beautiful carpet!
 - ✓ Repaired and painted rotting eaves and cross on the side on Mauldin Road.
 - ✓ Repaired the buckled floor in the church nave.
- Thank you one and all!

POP TABS for RMH

Keeping families close

We continue to collect all aluminum tabs from your canned goods: soda, tuna fish, pet food, and others. Make sure they are 100% aluminum (if a magnet sticks, it is not aluminum).

We deliver the tabs to the Ronald McDonald House in Greenville, who then sends the tabs to be recycled. All proceeds from the recycling are used to support general operating expenses of the House. Approximately one gallon of tabs equals the cost of a one night's stay for a family in need. Ask your friends and neighbors to collect for you too!

Thank you for your continued support!

Ronald McDonald House
 706 Grove Road, Greenville, SC 29605

Nursery

The nursery space is available for children 4 and under with their parents to use during the 9:30am service.

The nursery will remain unstaffed. Parents and caregivers are welcome to use the space for their child's needs. Please make sure to sign in on the sheet in the nursery to let us know you have been there.

We ask that you clean everything that was used during your time in the nursery.

Sanitizing products are provided. Please contact Lori Hawkins at lhredeemer@gmail.com with any questions.
