Collect of the Day

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Almighty God, whose Son our Savior Jesus Christ is the light of the world: Grant that your people, illumined by your Word and Sacraments, may shine with the radiance of Christ's glory, that he may be known, worshipped, and obeyed to the ends of the earth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, now and for ever.

People: Amen.

You may be seated for the readings.

First Reading

Isaiah 62:1-5

For Zion's sake I will not keep silent, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until her vindication shines out like the dawn, and her salvation like a burning torch. The nations shall see your vindication, and all the kings your glory; and you shall be called by a new name that the mouth of the Lord will give. You shall be a crown of beauty in the hand of the Lord, and a royal diadem in the hand of your God. You shall no more be termed Forsaken, and your land shall no more be termed Desolate; but you shall be called My Delight Is in Her, and your land Married; for the Lord delights in you, and your land shall be married. For as a young man marries a young woman, so shall your builder marry you, and as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride, so shall your God rejoice over you.

Lector: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

The Psalm

Psalm 36:5-10

- 5 Your love, O Lord, reaches to the heavens, *
and your faithfulness to the clouds.
- 6 Your righteousness is like the strong mountains,
your justice like the great deep; *
you save both man and beast, O Lord.
- 7 How priceless is your love, O God! *
your people take refuge under the shadow of your wings.
- 8 They feast upon the abundance of your house; *
you give them drink from the river of your delights.
- 9 For with you is the well of life, *
and in your light we see light.
- 10 Continue your loving-kindness to those who know you, *
and your favor to those who are true of heart.

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 12:1-11

Now concerning spiritual gifts, brothers and sisters, I do not want you to be uninformed. You know that when you were pagans, you were enticed and led astray to idols that could not speak. Therefore I want you to understand that no one speaking by the Spirit of God ever says "Let Jesus be cursed!" and no one can say "Jesus is Lord" except by the Holy Spirit. Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses.

Lector: The Word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel

John 2:1-11

Celebrant: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ According to John.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." Now standing there were six stone water jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to them, "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them up to the brim. He said to them, "Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward." So they took it. When the steward tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now." Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

Celebrant: The Gospel of the Lord.

Spiritual Communion Prayer

(If you are participating in this liturgy from a distance, the Church teaches that the full sacramental benefit of the Eucharist can be received by desire alone. Even in a time of physical separation from the Altar, you are loved and held by the One who created the world and gave it shape. If you wish, you may use this prayer of spiritual communion to focus your desire.)

In union, blessed Jesus, with the faithful gathered at every altar of your Church where your blessed Body and Blood are offered this day, I long to offer you praise and thanksgiving, for creation and all the blessings of this life, for the redemption won for us by your life, death, and resurrection, for the means of grace and the hope of glory. I believe that you are truly present in the Holy Sacrament, and, since I cannot at this time receive communion, I pray you to come into my heart. I unite myself with you and embrace you with all my heart, my soul, and my mind. Let nothing separate me from you; let me serve you in this life until, by your grace, I come to your glorious kingdom and unending peace. Amen.

All are welcome for Coffee Hour after service in the transept.

Please consider signing up for bringing simple snacks for Coffee Hour after Sunday services. There is a sign up sheet in the transept.

This time for socializing is such a blessing.

Thank you from

This Sunday's snacks are provided by the Daughters of the King.

ALL PARISH ANNUAL MEETING

Our 2022 Annual Meeting is scheduled for NEXT Sunday, January 23, 2022.

This is an important time in the life of the church. The Annual Meeting is a time to take a look at our parish as an entire community, to look at how we function together, to pray, worship, and celebrate our gifts. It is also a business meeting; we will have a chance to see the parish budget for the year and to amend our by-laws as occasionally needed. We streamline our meeting to provide relevant information in a short period of time.

We'll adjourn to ... coffee hour – a treasured weekly “meeting.”

Flower Dedications

It is a new year and a great time to think about offering the flowers on the altar in honor of someone special in your life.

*The 2022 Altar dedication book is wide open on the communication table for
YOUR dedications.*

*Dedications are $35 to offset the cost of the flowers, but the awe of honoring his Glory cannot be measured.
Thank you for
your generosity!*

Law Enforcement Appreciation Day

Thank you to everyone that gave a monetary donation toward Law Enforcement Appreciation Day!

Katie Houston collected $225.00 this past Sunday morning. She was able to purchase LOTS of individual snacks, fruit, and drinks from Costco; and the youth decorated and made them a card of thanks. Katie dropped all the goodies off at the Law Enforcement Center downtown to some very appreciative and excited police officers.

Thank you for your generous donations. We are so thankful and supportive of our police force and all they do to protect us and keep our community safe.

POP TABS for RMH

We continue to collect all aluminum tabs from your canned goods: soda, tuna fish, pet food, and others. Make sure they are 100% aluminum (if a magnet sticks, it is not aluminum).

We deliver the tabs to the Ronald McDonald House in Greenville, who then sends the tabs to be recycled. All proceeds from the recycling are used to support general operating expenses of the House. Approximately one gallon of tabs equals the cost of a one night's stay for a family in need.

Ask your friends and neighbors to collect for you too!

Thank you for your continued support!
