Easter Season message from our Bishop

To be a people of the Resurrection is to live in the light and knowledge of God's love for us, and to turn that light and love to others, even the people the world tells us to fear.

What practice can shape Easter for us the way fasting defines Lent? I would vote for chocolate and a fifty-day dessert, but my body might suffer, and God might not be glorified. What if we feasted on delight in God's children instead of sweets?

So, love boldly. Ask more questions. Listen for what God is doing in this new day of Resurrection. And, I will see you along the Way. +Daniel P. Richards
